LDA Member Benefits

Parents, children and adults with learning and other disabilities:

- learn to understand disabilities
- learn advocacy skills
- meet others with similar interests and concerns (network, support, and information groups)
- have access to latest information related to disabilities and current research
- receive Newsbriefs, a publication distributed six times a year to all LDA members
- have access to Workshops, Training Sessions, Special Events,
- can apply for scholarships
- receive State and Local Affiliate newsletters

LDA is a non-profit organization. Its financial support comes from membership dues, publication sales, conference proceeds, grants and donations. Basically a volunteer effort on all levels, LDA policies are determined by elected officers and a Board of Directors comprised primarily of parents and educators.
